The Prime Old M. and O.

There's a road South and West that has stood every test,
Prime Old M. and O.
It's in everyone's mouth as the Pride of the South,
Prime Old M. and O.
There's ne'er a care of pain when you board it's fine train,
For then you will e'er have a show;
Each bump is a pleasure, its cinders are treasuers,
The fine Old M. and O.

CHORUS:
On the Prime Old M. and O.
On the Fine Old M. and O.
Going out and coming back
Always fit to crow:
It takes the cake from East and West
That cake is never dough.
That's why there's no dyspepsia
On the healthy M. and O.

With passenger or freight, we never are late,
On the fine Old M. and O.
From the Gulf to Saint Lou.. we can just put you through
The fine Old M. and O.
Everything travels on it from coal to a bonnet
At rates that are frightfully low;
Fast schedules enjoying, no trouble annoying,
The Prime Old M. and O.

CHORUS:
On the Prime Old M. and O.
On the Prime Old M. and O.
Seldom missing any trip,
Always up to Jo;
It's management is sound and true
As all the others know,
And that is why they model on
The Prime Old M. and O.

There's a duty we hold to the system so bold,
The Prime Old M. and O.
Our hearts they are beating, the throb of joy and greeting,
The fine Old M. and O.
Each year we grow bolder, as shoulder to shoulder,
We strive in the best way we know,
Her good to endeavor, We'll ne'er from her sever,
The fine Old M. and O.

CHORUS:
The Prime Old M. and O.
The Prime Old M. and O.
We'll sing her praises o'er the land,
Wherever we may go.
We'll drink her health in three times three,
So that the world may know,
That we are with her right or wrong,
The Prime Old M. and O.
